PERFECT SALON GELPOLISH NAILS

REGISTRATION & ACCREDITATION STATUS

STADIO is registered with the Department of Higher Education and Training as a private higher education institution under the Higher Education Act, 1997. Registration Number 2008/HE07/004.

Mode of delivery: Contact Learning | Language of instruction: English
Campuses: Randburg
Modules: 5 | Assessment Events: 3 | Time frame: 3 Weeks

MODE OF DELIVERY

Contact-learning students will have the opportunity to meet and engage with guest lecturers from The Image Cartel who are experts in the Nail Industry during their on-campus nail lectures. When choosing contact learning as your preferred mode of learning, you will be expected to attend classes on campus. You will have the opportunity to contribute to the learning process and at the same time you will learn from the contributions of your fellow students. Contact learning students will complete many tasks in groups, where they will experience a safe environment to hone their leadership, collaboration, and interpersonal skills. STADIO's campuses are vibrant communities of learning, where students can engage and socialise with students from different backgrounds. All our campuses are Wi-Fi enabled, and facilities for studying and group work are available. Student recreation areas are also provided, and an on-campus canteen providing food and beverages is easily accessible.

PROGRAMME PURPOSE

WHY CHOOSE THE SCHOOL OF FASHION?

The School of fashion, formerly LISOF, is the only South African Fashion school internationally accredited with the British Accreditation Council (BAC). Our alumni populate the globe in the exciting field of fashion design, fashion media and within the dynamic fashion buying and business industries. Widely known as the most progressive fashion and design school in Africa, we are committed to the future of fashion and trends and pride ourselves on being relevant and forward-thinking. Programmes are practical with theoretical modules too, which allow students to have an immersive learning experience by giving them early access to the world of work while gaining world-class academic teachings.

Our alumni are recognised as being innovators, creative problem solvers and are sought after by fashion retailers, media houses, creative agencies and the manufacturing sector.
